THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

From Father Anthony

I took some rubbish out to the bin. The garden looked neglected and bedraggled but the rain had stopped. The Gunslinger, resplendent in red breast, swooped to a perch and challenged me. I wished him a Happy New Year, threw on a jacket and went for a stroll. Evening was just around the corner: the light was low. For a moment, mingled with car fumes, I detected a hint of Spring... that distinct sweet quality in the air. It filled me with happiness; a sense of expectancy; new life is on the way!

This week Jesus is baptised by John. Baptism (Βαπτίζω) means to 'immerse', (dip under), and John means, 'graced by God'. John represents a state of soul which, by God's grace, becomes aware of the spiritual and creates the conditions where spirit may rule. In this 'state' we are immersed (baptised) in a life where spirit, rather than the senses, guides our life. This 'state' is not Spirit; it is the state from which we recognise, desire and become aware of Spirit. As a man Jesus joins us in this state of immersion, John's baptism. As God, He raises us beyond awareness and recognition to immersion in Spirit itself... 'He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire'. The word 'fire' (πῦρ) is often used in scripture to depict that which transforms all it touches 'into light and likeness with itself'. Whatever you throw into a fire is consumed by and becomes one with the fire. When we allow ourselves to be baptised by and in Christ we become consumed by and are one with Him.

Last year was not an easy one! Maybe fear, worry or disturbance unsettled us. This might have led to anger, irritation, confusion and despair. We may have allowed ourselves to become immersed in darkness: we may feel we are drowning. The New Year brings us a Gospel of comfort. Christ knows what we are going through. He is immersed in the darkness with us... that's how close He is! To the extent that we attempt to become one with Him (immerse ourselves in Him) He will pull us up and beyond this little world of fear.

'A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people'. This year, as individuals and a community, shall we join in that feeling of expectancy and let Christ guide us into His own wonderful light?

Heartfelt thanks to you all from myself and Fr Jonathan for your Christmas offerings and for the many cards and gifts received. Your kindness is much appreciated. Thank you.
